THE SUBMARINE ARGUMENT.

RESULT OF FRENCH DEMANDS.

MAY MEAN ARMAMENT EXPANSION.

Despite M. Sarraut's assurance that the French unable to look with indifference on the situation thus created and promised to raise the matter again before the public conference. Mr. Hughes, whose statements have hitherto been most optimistic evidenced a modified attitude when he declared that as a result of the limitation of capital ships the conference would probably succeed "in a fairly satisfactory manner." Mr. Hughes pointed out that the French submarine plans involved increase their tonnage proportionately. Furthermore cruisers and destroyers would have to be provided in numbers adequate to deal with the situation created by a large submarine fleet thus threatening the expansion of armaments which was the antithes sof the objects of

ANGRY BRIDE,

The arrival ten minutes late of a bridegroom at a West End register office led to a heated argument with the bride as to whether she would then marry him.

When he entered the office the bride's first words were: "You're late! was just going home, and since I have been sitting here I have decided not to get married to you after all."

Gentle remonstrances followed from the bridegroom, and eventually he led her back into the office and called the registrar, whom he asked to proceed with the ceremony.

This the registrar did but the bride interrupted. "Stop, please," she demanded. "I don't want to marry him. I only consented to do so out of kindness. I don't really love him.' Handling the delicate situation with skill, the registrar suggested that he should give them half-an hour to make up their minds.

To this the embarrassed bridegroom eagerly assented and the registrar left them alone.

For a considerable time the couple could be heard arguing over the trouble that had arisen, but the bride seemed to be sticking to her resolve not to marry.

Saddenly the bridegroom came out of the room, and going to the registrar asked him to proceed with the ceremony. The bride then appeared of 1918, at her husband's request, she and said, "He has persuaded me to went to his old job to get his tools, go through with it, so please be quick." The marriage then took place, but

"SILVER STATE" JAZZ. FOR LOWLOON TO-NIGHT.

Kowloon is coming into its own and looks as though she's not going to go on playing Cinderella to Hongkong for very much longer. Every week there are two dances over at the Kow loon Theatre, in addition to the ordinary picture nights, and now the management have fixed up something for to night that will make Hongkong go green with envy and Kowloon gasp with anticipatory delight. Mr. Ray his wirelessed out to sea and secured the services of the "Silver State's" days. famous azz orchestra to provide dance music for the evening. Anyone who has b. en within ears, ot of the "Silver State" knows that that means that for the first time in its history Kowloon is to have the chance of footing it to real, honest-to-goodness jazz to night. TO-MOREOW'S LEAGUE, MATCHES.

lown to be played to-morrow:

R. G. A. v Police, South China

United v Kowloon Res: United University v R.G.A: Res: Navy

The outstanding game to-morrow will be the match between the "Tamar" and the Chinese. They at present tie for 1st place in the League t ble with an equal number of points, where all cargo impeding immediate the Chinese having slightly the better discharge will be landed at consignees gaol average. Both will, I understand, risk turn out at full strength and a fast narrow margin.

The Soldiers meet the "Titania" at Sookumpoo and although the Sailors have improved in their play, I think }

Res: should beat the Chinese "B"/ team, and the Chinese "A" team should have no difficulty in disposing of the College lads. It is to be hoped no bad feeling will be shown in this match, and that it will be played off in a clean and sportsmanlike manner.

Secretaries and Captains of teams should endeavour to get their men on the field at least five minutes before the time to kick-off. For late arrival on the ground the offending Club is liable to be fined by the Football Association.

A CHILDREN'S PLAY.

"FAIRY CHAIN" AT THEATRE ROYAL.

A "house" that any box manager might have surveyed with pride saw the Kowloon children's "Fairy Chain' entertainment at the Theatre Royal yesterday afternoon. The purpose of it was to raise funds for children's 26. charities at home and the promoters should be able to congratulate them selves upon a very satisfactory result.

It was a bright little show, prettily staged and prettily performed. The settings were really fine and the ingenious lighting effects added good deal to the attractiveness of the presentation. Judging from the applause, the audience thoroughly enjoyed itself and the small artists seemed to have the time of their lives. The performers ranged from tiny mites who figured as bluebells, fairies, frogs, rabb ts and whatnot to older girls who took the leading roles. In the story of the piece all the customary ingredients that go to the making up of the conventional fairy story found a place. There was the terrifying ogre with his fearsome club, the poor, pitiful Princess, and the debonai Prince. As the leading fairy Miss Doris Puncheon sang several solo parts sweetly and one of the most charming characterisations was that of Miss Dorothy Goodman who made a truly sprightly sprite. Miss Daisy Witchell made quite an attractive Prince and Miss Pearl Ogilvie made the most of her part as the Ogre. One of the most delightful solo interludes in the piece wa provided by Miss Vivian Young who won well deserved applause for her gracefully executed skirt dance. The orchestra worked hard to ensure the success of the performance and the unfaltering fashion in which the piece was carried through spoke wonders for the perserverance of those who had a hand in per ecting the immense organisation which such an enterprise demands Great Anderson, L. CHARGE AGAINST MOTORBOAT CASHIER.

LOST OR SPENT?

Kwok Ching, an employee of the "Moonraker" Motor Boat Cov., was charged before Magistrate Wood his morning with the embezzlement of $33 which he had received from customers of the company on December

The manager of the company said motor boat No. 2, and it was his duty to collect money from persons hiring the boat and to hand it over at the close of each day to a clerk of the company at Arsenal Pier at 11 p.m. At 11 p.m., on December 26, when the clerk went to the pier to collect the money, he found the motor boat lying alongside the pier. The crew was a leep. but the defendant could not be found. The police were in forme;, and defendantwas arrested in Wanchai at 7 o'clock the following day. When asked about the money, he told the witness that his pocket had been picked in Yaumati on the previous night and money stolen. Asked why did not report the robbery the police, the defendant said that he was too ashamed to do so, as it would make him appear such a "greenhorn."

Two clerks gave technical evidence as to entries made in an account book at the end of each trip made by the motor boat from a report made by the coxswain as to the length of time the boat was hired, from which the amount due from the defendant could be calculated. The coxswain should be in a position to know how much the defendant actually received from ach customer during the day.

The Magistrate emanded the case until to-morrow morning in order that the coxswain might be produced to give evidence. Defendant was allowed bail in the sum of $200.

HAMBURG SHIPBUILDING. LATEST SHIPPING NEWS.

MANY MOTOR SHIPS.

Considerable, activity continues in the shipyard at Hamburg, and beyoud a large amount of repair work on British steamers; several interest ing units have recently been built. The Deutsche Werft has just finished two large freight steamers. One these was the 'Westerwald" (7,350 tons carrying capacity), for the Hamburg Amerika Line. This vessel is a sister ship to the "Niederwald" and the "Steigerwald," already delivered by the builders. Her dimen sions are :- Length, 118.87 metres; breadth, 15.28 metres: depth, 8.21 metres. She is propelled by a 2 300 h.p. engine, fitted with three cylindrical boilers, with forced draught and superheating.

The steamer "Aldabi," of 8,000 tons capacity, has just been finished for a Dutch company. Her length is 121.4 metres; breadth, 16.45 metres; and depth, 11.67 metres. She is driven by a turbine engine of 2,650 h p. For the drive of the screw itself a double reduction gear is employed, which reduces the revolutions from 3,200 to 80 This is the first instalment o this kind that the Deutsche Werlt has executed. In this ship there are also that the defendant was in charge of three cylindrical boilers, with forced draught, arranged or oil or coal tuelling. Two more ships of the same size will shortly be finished for the same owners. One will be fitted with a turbine, and the other with an ordinary marine steam engine

The "Westerwald" and the "Aldabi," having completed satisfactory trials are now lying in Hamburg awaiting the r fir t cargoes.

A tank steamer, of 3,700 tons capacity, for the Julius Schindler Oil Works, Hamburg, Las also been completed and is ready for launching. She measures: Length, 94.8 metres; brendth, 138 metres; depth, 7.3 metres. She s propelled by a Burmeister and Wain Diesel engine of

NOTICE TO QUIT.

RENTS CIRDINA'NOE RULING.

The Puisne Judge (Mr. H. H. Justice Gempertz) gave judgment this morning in a case, heard earlier in the week, in which Lau Cheung shi sought to obtain possession of premises at No. 146, Queen's Road Central, occupied by the Hongkong Teashop and some other tenants. Mr. C. A. S. Russ appeared to support the application and Mr. F. G. Vaux represent d the tenants.

In the course of his judgment, His Honour said :--The facts of the case which are agreed are simple.

By a letter dated the 30th August last the plaintiff, who is the landlord of certain premises, gave notice to the several defendants, who are tenants or sub-tenants of those premises, to quit. On December 6 the writ in this action was issued claiming possession and mesne profits.

Mr. Hewlitt, Architect for the plaintiff has put in a plan showing a projected reconstruction of the premises which he states will make the tenement a new building within meaning of the Public Health and Bungings Ordinance 1903.

It is admitted that the alterations and additions shown on the plans referred to in the notice of August 30 do not amount to such a reconstruction. These plans were in fact inspected by the tenants who on seeing them decided to defend the WEEKLY REPORT. Messrs. James F. Hutton & Co., Ltd., Manchester, Manufacturers and Exporters of all kinds of piece goods to India, China, &c. report on Wednesday, Nov. 23, as follows :---

Cotton prices have been unsettled and fluctuating, but on balance American shew a slight advance from those last reported. In the earlier days of the week sentiment was still suffering from the effects of the unexpected ginning figures, and sheer be entirely ignored. There has been lack of business led to a steady very little change in the state of our
